

Search Results Window

The top portion of this window lists all the results which match your search criteria. If you click on one of these, the bottom portion of the window will show you the path to that file in the scan results where that file is located.

To return to the Scan Results window, select the View --> Scan Results menu item.