

User Interface Preferences Window

Report Level

This control sets the level of detail displayed in the main Data Rescue report.

Open report on any error

This control determines if the report window should automatically be opened when errors occur.